

JASPER COURIER.

OF S. H. PARVIN. Advertising and Collecting Agent, No. 80 West Fourth St., is our agent in Cincinnati.

JACOB HECKMAN, Esq., is our agent for this county.

To Contributors.

As our design is to make our paper one that will be of interest to all engaged in the different departments of active industry in every part of the county, we respectfully solicit the co-operation of our intelligent citizens throughout its limits. And being especially desirous of promoting the farming interests of Dubois, items in any department of agriculture are particularly solicited. Please send us all the news, incidents, general information, and mineral discoveries in your respective neighborhoods.

Job Printing.

We are prepared to give prompt attention to all kinds of Job or Book printing. Any description of blanks, receipts, bill heads, store, stallion or jack bills can be forthcoming on the shortest notice, in the most approved style, and on reasonable terms.

GRATIS NOTICES.—We publish notices of marriages, deaths, &c., gratis, and would like to record all which occur in the county. Ministers, or others, who officiate on such occasions, will confer a favor by sending us a notice immediately.

AN OFFER.

Any person sending us five new subscribers, and the money, will receive a copy of the Courier for one year, as a present.

NO PAPER.—Next week being holiday week, there will be no paper issued from this office.

WE WISH all our readers a very "Merry Christmas," and hope they may live to enjoy a thousand more.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—We are sorry to learn that Dr. R. M. Welman met with a severe accident this afternoon. He fell from his stable loft and was so severely injured, as not to be able to help himself. He lay for sometime before he was discovered, and was then carried to the residence of his father-in-law, Col. Edmonston. We hope he may speedily recover.

WE are under obligations to Mr. J. Haxthausen, the obliging and gentlemanly clerk of Ropke & Finke, of Louisville, Ky., for substantial favors conferred on us last week by procuring the Courier several new subscribers. Those of readers desiring to purchase liquor of any kind in Louisville, will find Mr. H. pleasant and accommodating. May his shadow never be less.

CHRISTMAS SERVICES.—We understand that our excellent brass band have been making preparations, and in connection with the choir, and the splendid organ of St. Joseph's Cathedral, will add to the imposing solemnities of the Catholic Church on Christmas eve. These services are designed to fix on the mind the great and joyous event which the day commemorates, and as such cannot be too generally attended.

PREACHER ARRESTED.—We learn that a preacher who hails from near Terre Haute, and who goes by the name of Stewart there, but gave his name as Williams in Pike county, was yesterday arrested near Petersburg, just after finishing a sermon, on a charge of horse stealing. He was recognized for trial at court, and is now in the Petersburg jail. It is also rumored that he has yet another name, and a wife for each name.

MYSTERIOUS AFFAIR.—The body of a dead man, apparently an Irishman, was found this morning, about a mile and a half north of Petersburg, near a large swamp. His throat was cut and one of his eyes gouged out. By his side was found a jug of whisky. Nothing is yet known as to whether he was a victim of suicide or of murder.

MISS SARAH M. KELLOGG, a giantess, is exhibiting herself at Louisville. Though but 16 years old she is seven feet two inches high and large in proportion.

DR. MANN'S AGUE BALSAM.

Unrivalled in the History of Medicine.

This Balsam, that has been so extensively sold and met with such unrivalled success for the past five years, and brought health and happiness to many families throughout the Western Country, is the result of years of study and experiment, by the proprietors of this wonderful compound; and we are happy to state to the world that the object sought for has been gained, which is found in the numerous evidences in favor of this remedy. This Balsam is only recommended for one class of diseases, viz: those produced by malaria, and enters directly into the circulation, and thereby counteracts the poison of malaria in the system; and as a tonic it is particularly recommended. Now for a few evidences:

Oberlin, Ohio, June 1st, 1858.
Messrs S. K. Mann & Co.—Gents—Having had occasion to use some of your Ague Balsam in my family, I find it the most efficient and prompt remedial agent for the certain cure of ague ever used, and as a strengthening tonic I think it has no equal.
Your obedient servant, S. HENDRY.
Oney, Ill., S. pt. 20, 1857.
Messrs S. K. Mann & Co.—Gents—Your Ague Balsam is the only remedy that seems to meet the wants of the people of this locality. We have upon our shelves all the popular remedies of the day for the cure of intermittents, but Dr. Mann's Balsam sells in preference to all others, from the simple fact it cures. It is destined to excel all other remedies ever offered.

Truly Yours, G. W. HAYNE.
Cairo, Ill., May 15, 1858.
Dr. Mann & Co., Gallin, Ohio—Gents—Your Ague Balsam is the peoples' own remedy, in this part of the country, for the cure of ague and fever. We have never known it to fail in any case when properly used. It is looked upon as a perfect antidote to malarious diseases.
Very truly Yours,
REED & PETTIGREW.

Saint Louis, June 1st, 1858.
Messrs S. K. Mann & Co.—We find the demand for Dr. Mann's Ague Balsam daily increasing, and the great demand for it is a sufficient evidence of its great merit. In all places in our travels we find the universal opinion of those selling it, and more particularly those using it, to be, that it has no equal in proprietary remedies, and that it is a certain specific in a fact that cannot be disputed. Truly Yours, O. J. WOOD & Co.

S. K. MANN & CO., Proprietors,
Gallin, Ohio. Sold by all good Drug-gists. nov 17.

State of Indiana, Dubois County, ss:
NOTICE is hereby given that Jared Niehaus, administrator of the estate of Henry Pillian, dec'd, has filed his petition to sell the real estate of said decedent, viz: the w. half of the south-west quarter of section 28, town 2, south of range 5 west, his personal property being insufficient to pay his debts, and that said petition will be heard at the next term of the Court of Common Pleas of said county.
